VACCINATION POLICY

Every pet checking in for boarding must be up-to-date on the following:

DOGS: Rabies (As req by law), DHLPP, Bordetella

CATS: Rabies (As req by law), FVRCP

If you are unable to provide proof of the above stated items from a licensed veterinarian, your pet will be examined by a doctor and will receive the appropriate treatments (Wellness exam, vaccination fees will apply.)

All of our guests must be free of parasites, both internal and external. If they are not, we will treat them at the owner's expense. If it becomes necessary to fully or partially bathe your pet, we will do so at a nominal fee.

MEDICAL ILLNESS POLICY

One of the advantages of boarding your pet at a veterinary clinic is that veterinary attention is readily available should the need arise. If your pet becomes ill, we will call the emergency number above regarding your pet's symptoms and treatment options. However, if no one can be reached, please indicate your wishes below should your pet require treatment to relieve immediate discomfort or to resolve an important medical condition.

_____ In a life-threatening situation, I authorize whatever services the doctor deems necessary for the best care of my pet.

OR

_____ In a life-threatening situation, I direct the doctor to only provide those services necessary to keep my pet comfortable and alleviate pain.

In the event my pet needs non emergency medical treatment please perform whatever services the doctor deems necessary for the best care of my pet. I agree to be financially responsible up to the cost of $ _____

HOLIDAY POLICY

If you are making a reservation over one of the seven 'major' holidays (Easter, Memorial Day, 4th of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas) we do have a strict cancellation policy due to the high demand of boarding at this time. If you must cancel your reservation we require a 72 hour notice or we will be forced to charge a $35 fee.

Admission Hours:
